

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Metal coated powders are produced by suspending a precursor metal salt and the powder to be coated in a glycol. This mixture is heated, and the metal salt is reduced and the metal precipitates as a coating onto the powder.